Task 2. Questions 10-17. Read about the holiday resorts Alpaca, Bayville and Castilla. Which place do you think the people are talking about? Write A (= Alpaca), B (= Bayville) or C (= Castilla). The first one has been done for you.

ALPACA Alpaca is high in the mountains, so it's cool in summer and covered in snow in winter. It's a popular skiing resort with local people – many families in the capital have holiday homes here – and in the summer people come here to walk, climb, ride horses, and use the beautiful new sports centre, which has excellent facilities for children as well as adults. But Alpaca is a quiet resort – most foreign tourists go to bigger, more famous (and more expensive!) places across the valley. Let's hope they stay there!	BAYVILLE Bayville is three km of hotels and bars with a sandy beach in front – and it has its own international airport! During the day, everyone's on the beach sunbathing, or in the water swimming, sailing, fishing and doing all kinds of water-sports – prices are reasonable, and you can have lessons, too. After dark, the bars, restaurants, clubs and discos take over until four or five in the morning: if you want to escape the music, you'll have to leave town! And sleeping? Well, if you're 18–25, who wants to sleep?	CASTILLA Wherever you are in Castilla, you can see the old castle, on the hill in the centre of town. With its long history and its fascinating museum, the castle has visitors from all over the world. June is the time of the Beethoven Festival, and is especially busy, but even in winter most hotels are full. The town also has several art galleries, a food market, and some of the best restaurants in the region. All this isn't cheap, of course, especially if you stay in the 5-star Castilla Hotel. But if you have enough money, you should go.
