Measuring health and happiness

How do you measure happiness? Perhaps health is the best way because a famous doctor once said, "Happy people generally don't get sick." It's also to measure how many people feel ill or unhealthy in a country. For example, one survey says Iceland is the 'healthiest country in the world' because men and women live a long time there, the air is very and there are more doctors available per person than anywhere in the world.

However, there was another survey of the happiest countries in the world and Iceland was not the top. The questions on this survey : How much do you earn? How healthy are you? How safe do you feel? After visiting 155 different countries, the researchers that Denmark feels happier than other countries.

Imagine that you are preparing a project with your friend. You have found some interesting material for the presentation and you want to read this text to your friend. You have 2 minutes to read the text silently, then be ready to read it out aloud. You will not have more than 2 minutes to read it.

Camping is an activity in which people live in tents in the outdoors. It is very popular all over the world. Modern camping was started in England. Very soon it became a popular activity among people of every class and profession in many countries. Campers can enjoy fresh air, wildlife, and living in nature for a short time.

There are some items that one needs on every camping trip. For example, a tent or a sleeping bag will be necessary. Tents come in many sizes and shapes. Modern tents are not very heavy and really easy to set up. Most campers prefer to sleep in sleeping bags. Instead of tents, some people prefer to buy a trailer to move from one place to another. You also need to have comfortable clothes and food which is easy to cook.
